

Please do not remove K Love from the San Antonio area. It is the only music station that I feel can truly reach non-Christian audiences without being preachy or over the top. It is the only station I feel I can leave on safely for my children. It lifts my spirits everyday and helps me to be a calm, centered mother. When I listen to other stations, I do not get the same benefits. It is a respite for me.